

Like(doing)

So drücken wir aus, dass jemand etwas gerne macht.

I like singing.

Do you like playing football?

Jake likes juggling.

Sally likes having tea for breakfast.

The cat likes chasing the mouse.

Jane and I like going for a walk in the park.

Ben and Jerry like eating ice-cream.

Wenn jemand etwas nicht gerne macht, verneinen wir einfach.

I don't like playing the piano.

Joe doesn't like washing the dishes

Like doing in der past tense

I liked playing football when I was younger.

Cleo liked drawing pictures in the school workshop last year.

Phil didn't like dancing in Physical Education last month.

We didn't like reading the book Mr. Windisch gave us.